

14th Bi-Annual Weekend
SOULMATES: FINDING YOURS
July 4th-6th, 2025

Please read the questions below and the answers carefully, as they will address the main questions that you might have related to our upcoming weekend.

☐ What is the goal of the weekend?

The goal of our weekend is to give Frum divorced members who are serious-minded an opportunity to be inspired with wonderful first-class lectures, beautiful Davening, delicious food, and a diverse program.

☐ Who is this weekend intended for?

This weekend is geared to all who are divorced with a Get. However, it is open to those who have never been married and would seriously consider marrying a divorcee. It is also open to those who are widowed.

☐ Can you join if you are separated but do not have a Get?

Unfortunately, you may NOT join the weekend without a Get. While we empathize greatly with those who are enduring the arduous process of divorce, our standard is that we can only offer this program to those who are in possession of a Get.

☐ What will the makeup of those attending the weekend be?

There will be a diverse group of people, who come from all communities that want a weekend to feel rejuvenated and inspired. The prerequisite, however, is that they are Frum and earnest. Our primary mission is to provide emotional and social support for our divorced community. We are not singularly focused on making Shidduchim.

While it would be a wonderful outcome for people to meet at our events and create a lifelong bond, this is not our primary mission. If this is your only reason for joining us, we encourage you to attend one of the many programs that are being offered for singles by other organizations.

☐ Will I be able to meet a potential Shidduch on this weekend?

We have several board members who are Shadchanim and facilitators. Their primary role is to meet each and every participant, and get to know them personally. Throughout the weekend there will be opportunities for both formal and informal interaction.

☐ How do I ensure that I will not be meeting my former spouse over the weekend?

Frum Divorce is going to great lengths to ensure the comfort of each and every one of our participants. We will conduct a conflict search on every reservation, so that only one party from a previous marriage will attend (This is subject to you providing us with the accurate details of your ex-spouse).

Practically speaking, the first person to complete the registration and payment will automatically eliminate the former spouse from attending. While we would love to accommodate everyone, we want to be respectful and understanding of people's circumstances.

This policy only affects previous marriages, and does not apply to any other relationships.

☐ Will there be an even ratio of men to women?

We will try to keep the ratio as close as possible. However, this ratio cannot be guaranteed.

☐ Will the doors be on Shabbos mode?

Yes, we anticipate that every door will have a Shabbos key or non-electronic access.

☐ What is the timing of the weekend?

Check in for the weekend begins at 3 pm on Friday and it ends at 12 pm on Sunday. There will be a brunch from 10 am – 12 pm on Sunday.

☐ Will there be transportation?

While FD is not providing transportation, please click on the link below to see the directions from your desired starting point.

<https://www.hilton.com/en/hotels/pctdtdt-doubletree-princeton/hotel-location/>

• What is the cost of this event?

Prices are explained in the chart listed on the site.